

The Tipping Point For Women's Equity

Presented by the Fremont Branch of AAUW

Sunol Valley Golf Club

6900 Mission Road, Sunol

December 7, 2008

2:00 to 4:00 PM

$20 donation

Light Hors d'oeuvres Served

Matilda Butler will speak about her celebrated memoir, Rosie's Daughters, "the collective memoir of a generation" of women who were born during World War II and became the "First Women To" (FW2).

Matilda Butler, one of Rosie's Daughter's, is a psychologist, educator and award-winning author. Butler writes, teaches and farms a hillside near Monterey Bay.

Matilda Butler's book will be available for purchase and signing. Rosie's Daughters retails for $21.95. You can buy the book and receive a Rosie's Mug for only $20. In addition, $5.00 for every book purchased on December 7th will be donated to the AAUW Education Foundation.

AAUW advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, and research.

Checks payable to AAUW—Fremont Branch

Mail to:

Kathy Garfinkle
32924 Monrovia Street
Union City, CA 94587

For information call: 510 489-4779

Name _____

Number of Guest(s) _____
November 21st.

Reservations due by

